(3) Where the fair market value of a supply or import of services at a given date cannot be determined under subsection (2), the fair market value is the consideration in money which a similar supply or similar import, as the case may be, would generally fetch if supplied or imported in similar circumstances at that date in Anguilla, being a supply or import freely offered and made between persons who are not related persons.

Value of supply

15. (1) Subject to this Act, the value of a supply of services is the amount of the consideration for the supply.

(2) Where a portion of the price of a supply represents tax imposed by this Act that is not accounted for separately, the value of the supply is the price reduced by an amount equal to the tax fraction multiplied by that price.

(3) Where—

(10) Except as otherwise provided in this section, if a supply is made for no consideration the value of the supply is nil.

(11) The value of a supply referred to in section 3(9) is the consideration for the acquisition of the taxable activity reduced by an amount which bears to the amount of such consideration the same ratio as the intended use or application of the taxable activity for making taxable supplies bears to the total intended use or application of the taxable activity.

(12) Notwithstanding what is provided for in this section, the value of services consisting of a hotel accommodation or tour package in Anguilla arranged by a non-resident unregistered travel agent or a non-resident unregistered tour operator shall be the consideration charged by the taxable person for those services, less the commission or fee paid to the travel agent or tour operator for those services.

Exempt supply

17. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a supply of services is an exempt supply if it is specified in item 2 of Schedule 2.

(2) A supply of services is not an exempt supply if, in the absence of subsection (1), the supply would be charged with tax at the rate of 0% under section 16.

(3) Regulations may be made by the Minister subject to approval by Executive Council with regards to the treatment of exempt supplies.

Withholding of GST

Exempt import

PART 7

CALCULATION OF TAX PAYABLE

Tax Payable for tax period

23. (1) The tax payable by a taxable person for a tax period in respect of taxable supplies is the total amount of output tax payable by the person in respect of taxable supplies made by the person during the period, less the total input tax credit allowed to the person under section 24 for the period.

(2) Where the total amount of input tax credit allowed to a taxable person for a tax period under subsection (1) exceeds the total amount of output tax payable by the person for that period, the amount of the excess credit is dealt with in accordance with section 35.

Input tax credit

24. (1) Subject to this section, the total amount of input tax allowed as a credit for purposes of section 23 is the sum of—

- (a) the input tax payable in respect of taxable supplies made to the person during the tax period, and paid in respect of any import of services by the person during the tax period, where the supply or import is for use in a taxable activity carried on by the person;
- (b) any input tax credit allowed under section 25 for the tax period;
- (c) an amount equal to the tax fraction of any amount paid during the tax period by the taxable person to a supplier in respect of the redemption of a token, voucher, gift certificate, or stamp referred to in section 15(7) by the supplier; and
- (d) any amount carried forward under section 35(2).

(2) Subject to this section, no credit for input tax is allowed in respect of a supply or import unless a tax invoice, tax debit or tax credit note, as the case may be, in relation to the supply, has been provided in accordance with section 28 or 29 and is held by the taxable person taking the credit at the time a return in respect of the supply is filed, other than when a tax invoice is not required to be provided.

(3) Where a taxable person does not have a tax invoice referred to in section 28 evidencing the input tax paid, the Comptroller may allow an input tax credit in the tax period in which the credit arises where the Comptroller is satisfied that the—

- (a) taxable person took all reasonable steps to acquire a tax invoice;
- (b) failure to acquire a tax invoice was not the fault of the taxable person; and
- (c) amount of input tax claimed by the taxable person is correct.

Input tax credit allocation and disallowance rules

25. (1) In this section “entertainment” means the provision of food, beverages, tobacco, accommodation, amusement, recreation, or other hospitality by a taxable person, whether directly or indirectly, to any person.

(2) No amount may be deducted under section 24 by a taxable person for input tax paid or payable in respect of—

(a) a taxable supply to or import by the person of services acquired for the purposes of entertainment or providing entertainment, unless—

(i) the person is in the business of providing entertainment and the taxable supply or import relates to the provision of taxable supplies of entertainment in the ordinary course of that business, or

(ii) the person is in the business of providing taxable supplies of transportation services and the entertainment is provided to passengers as part of the transportation service; or

(b) any subscription fee or any other fee paid by the person in respect of membership of any person in a club, association, or society of a sporting, social, or recreational nature.

(3) Where only a part of the supplies made by a taxable person during a tax period are taxable supplies, the amount of the input tax allowed as a credit under section 24(1)(a) for that period is determined as follows—

(a) in respect of a supply or import received which is directly allocable to the making of taxable supplies, the full amount of input tax payable in respect of the supply or import shall be allowed as a credit;

(b) in respect of a supply or import received which is directly allocable to the making of exempt supplies, no amount of input tax payable in respect of the supply or import shall be allowed as a credit; or

(c) in respect of a supply or import received which is used for the making of both taxable and exempt supplies the amount is calculated according to the following formula—

where—

A is the total amount of input tax payable in respect of supplies and imports received during the period for which a credit is allowed under section 24(1)(a), less the input tax accounted for under paragraphs (a) and (b),

B is the total value of taxable supplies made by the taxable person during the tax period of the taxable person, and

C is the total value of all supplies made by the taxable person during the tax period of the taxable person.

(4) Where the fraction B/C in subsection (3)(c) is—

(a) more than 0.90, the taxable person may deduct the total amount of input tax on supplies and imports described in that paragraph;

- (b) less than 0.10, the taxable person may not deduct any of the input tax on supplies and imports described in that paragraph.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), where a taxable person makes both taxable and exempt supplies during a tax period, the Comptroller may determine the amount of input tax allowed for the tax period on such other basis as the Comptroller considers reasonable, to the extent provided in regulations issued by the Minister.

(6) A taxable person dissatisfied with a decision of the Comptroller under subsection (5) may challenge the decision only under Part 10.

Post-sale adjustments and bad debts

26. (1) This section applies where, in relation to a supply by a taxable person—

- (a) the supply is cancelled;
- (b) the taxation of the supply changes because the nature of the supply is fundamentally varied or altered;
- (c) the previously agreed consideration for the supply is altered, whether due to an offer of a discount or for any other reason; or
- (d) the whole or part of the supply is returned to the taxable person.

(2) Subsection (1) applies only where the taxable person making the supply has—

- (a) provided a tax invoice in relation to the supply and the amount shown on the invoice as the tax charged on the supply is incorrect as a result of the occurrence of one or more of the events described under subsection (1)(a) to (d); or
- (b) filed a return for the tax period in which the supply occurred and has accounted for an incorrect amount of output tax on that supply as a result of the occurrence of one or more of the events described under subsection (1)(a) to (d).

(3) Where subsection (1) applies, the taxable person making the supply is required to make an adjustment as specified under subsection (4) or (6).

(4) Where the output tax properly chargeable in respect of the supply exceeds the output tax actually accounted for by the taxable person (the supplier), the amount of the excess is deemed to be output tax charged by the supplier in relation to a taxable supply made in the tax period in which the event referred to in subsection (1) occurred.

(5) For purposes of section 23, where a taxable person issues a tax debit note to rectify the output tax charged to a registered recipient in the circumstances specified under subsection (4), the additional tax specified in the tax debit note is deemed to be input tax payable by the registered recipient in the tax period in which the tax debit note is received.

(6) Subject to subsection (8), where the output tax actually accounted for by the taxable person exceeds the output tax properly chargeable in relation to the supply, the taxable person is allowed an input tax credit under section 24 for the amount of the excess in the tax period in which the event referred to in subsection (1) occurred.

(7) Where a supplier issues a tax credit note to rectify the output tax charged to the recipient who is a taxable person in the circumstances specified under subsection (6), the additional tax specified in the tax credit note is treated as output tax payable by the recipient in respect of a taxable supply made by the recipient in the tax period in which the tax credit note is received.

(8) Where the supply has been made to a person who is not a taxable person, a credit under subsection (6) is not allowed, unless the amount of the excess tax has been repaid to the recipient of the supply, whether in cash or as a credit against an amount owing to the taxable person by the recipient.

(9) Subject to subsection (13), a taxable person shall be allowed an input tax deduction under section 24 for tax paid in respect of a taxable supply made by the taxable person where the whole or part of the consideration for the supply is subsequently treated as a bad debt.

(10) The amount of the deduction allowed under subsection (9) is the amount of the tax paid in respect of the taxable supply which corresponds to the amount of the debt treated as bad.

(11) The deduction referred to in subsection (9) arises on the date on which the bad debt was written off in the accounts of the registered person or twelve (12) months after the supply was made whichever is later, and if the registered person satisfies the Comptroller that reasonable efforts have been made to recover the amounts due and payable.

(12) Where any amount in respect of which a deduction is allowed in accordance with subsection (9) is at any time wholly or partly recovered by the taxable person, the taxable person shall be treated as having charged tax in respect of a taxable supply made during the tax period in which the bad debt is wholly or partly recovered, being an amount of tax calculated according to the following formula—

$A \times B/C$ where—

- (a) A is the amount allowed as a deduction under subsection (9);
- (b) B is the amount of the bad debt recovered; and
- (c) C is the amount of the bad debt previously written off.

(13) A deduction shall be allowed under subsection (9) only if—

- (a) the taxable supply is made to a person other than a taxable person; or
- (b) the taxable supply is made to a taxable person and the person claiming the deduction under that subsection issued a tax credit note to the registered purchaser listing the amount claimed under the formula referred to in subsection (12).

Interest on unpaid tax

27. (1) A person who fails to pay tax by the due date for payment under section 43 is liable for interest at the rate specified in item 1 of Schedule 4 on the amount unpaid, calculated from the date on which the payment was due until the date on which payment was made.

(2) Interest under subsection (1) is calculated as simple interest for each month, or part of a month, during which it remains unpaid.

(3) Interest paid by a person under subsection (1) shall be refunded to the person to the extent that the tax to which it relates is subsequently determined not to have been due and payable.

(4) The provisions of this Act relating to the payment, collection and recovery of tax apply to any interest charged under this section as if the interest were tax due under this Act.

Tax invoices and sales receipts

28. (1) A taxable person making a taxable supply to another taxable person, hereinafter referred to as a “registered recipient”, is required to provide the registered recipient with an original tax invoice for the taxable supply containing such particulars as specified in item 1 of Schedule 3 within 40 days of the date of supply.

(2) A taxable person making a taxable supply to an unregistered recipient, is required to provide such unregistered recipient with a sales receipt for the taxable supply containing such particulars as specified in item 2 of Schedule 3.

(3) A person is prohibited from providing a tax invoice in circumstances other than those specified under this section.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), a taxable person shall issue only one tax invoice for each taxable supply.

(5) Where—

- (a) a registered recipient has not received a tax invoice within 40 days after the date of a supply; or
- (b) the invoice received by the registered recipient needs modifying or adjusting for good reason;

the registered recipient may request, in writing, that the taxable person provides a tax invoice or modified tax invoice in respect of the taxable supply and the taxable person is required to comply with the request within 10 days after receiving it.

(6) Where a registered recipient claims to have lost the original tax invoice as referred to in this section for a taxable supply, the taxable person may provide a copy clearly marked “copy”.

(7) For the purpose of this section—

“registered recipient” means a taxable person who receives a taxable supply from a taxable person;

“unregistered recipient” means a person who is not a taxable person who receives a taxable supply from a taxable person.

Tax credit and debit notes

29. (1) Where a tax invoice has been issued in the circumstances specified in section 26(2)(a) and the amount shown as tax charged in that tax invoice exceeds the tax properly chargeable in respect of the supply, the taxable person making the supply is required to provide a registered recipient of the supply with a tax credit note containing the particulars specified in item 3 of Schedule 3.

(2) A person may not provide a tax credit note in any circumstances other than those specified under subsection (1).

(3) Where a tax invoice has been issued in the circumstances specified under section 26(2)(a) and the tax properly chargeable in respect of the supply exceeds the amount shown as tax charged in that tax invoice, the taxable person making the supply is required to provide a registered recipient of the supply with a tax debit note containing the particulars specified in item 4 of Schedule 3.

(4) A person may not provide a tax debit note in any circumstances other than those specified under subsection (3).

(5) A taxable person may issue only one tax credit note or tax debit note for the amount of the excess stated in subsections (1) and (3) respectively.

(6) Notwithstanding this section, where a taxable person claims to have lost the original tax credit note or tax debit note, the taxable person who made the supply may provide a copy clearly marked “copy”.

(2) A tax return is required—

(3) A person dissatisfied with a decision of the Comptroller under subsection (1) may challenge the decision only under Part 10.

(3) Subject to this section, if any of the excess referred to in subsection (1)(a) for a tax period remains after being carried forward and used as input tax creditable in 3 consecutive tax periods, the taxable person may file with the Comptroller a claim for refund for the amount remaining, in the form and with the documentation prescribed by the Comptroller.

(4) By the end of the second full calendar month following the date the claim for refund described in subsection (3) is lodged or, where the Comptroller orders an audit of the claim for refund described in subsection (3), within 10 days after conclusion of the audit, if later, the Comptroller, to the extent satisfied that the taxpayer is entitled to the amount of the refund claimed—

(8) Where a person has overpaid tax in the circumstances specified under subsection (1)(b), the person may apply in writing to the Comptroller for a refund of the excess amount of tax, accompanied by documentary proof of payment of the excess amount.

(9) For purposes of subsection (8), if the claim for refund is lodged by a taxable person—

(a) the Comptroller is required to deal with the claim as if it were a claim under subsection (3); and

(b) to the extent that any output tax claimed to be refundable is an amount borne by a recipient who is not a taxable person, the output tax is refundable only to the extent that it will be repaid by the taxable person to that recipient, whether in cash or as a credit against an amount owing to the taxable person by the recipient.

(10) Where a taxable person has failed to file a return for any tax period as required under this Act, the Comptroller may withhold payment of any amount refundable under this section until the taxable person lodges such return as required.

(2) Where the Comptroller is satisfied that owing to absence from Anguilla, sickness, or other reasonable cause, the person was prevented from lodging an objection within the time specified under subsection (1) and there has been no unreasonable delay by the person in lodging the objection, the Comptroller may accept an objection lodged after the time specified under subsection (1).

(3) An objection to an appealable decision is required to be in writing and to specify in detail the grounds upon which it is made.

(4) Where a person disputes the amount of GST to be paid, such person shall be required to pay 50% of the amount disputed and such amount shall be paid before the Comptroller considers such objection.

(5) An objection to an assessment that is based solely on an error of calculation in a GST Return filed with the Comptroller does not suspend the objector's obligation to pay the amount assessed.

(6) After considering the objection, the Comptroller may allow the objection in whole or in part and amend the assessment or the decision objected to accordingly, or disallow the objection.

(7) The Comptroller is required to serve the person objecting with notice in writing of the decision on the objection within 90 days after the objection is lodged.

(3) Upon application in writing by a person dissatisfied with a decision under section 38(6), the Appeals Tribunal may, where satisfied that owing to absence from Anguilla, sickness, or other reasonable cause, the person was prevented from lodging a notice of appeal within the time specified under subsection (2) and that there has been no unreasonable delay by the person in lodging the notice, accept a notice of appeal lodged after the time specified under subsection (2).

(3) Where on appeal, the High Court directs a refund of any tax that has been overpaid by a person under section 38(4), the Comptroller shall be required to give such refund within 30 days of notification of the decision of the High Court.

(3) Upon application in writing by a person liable for tax, the Comptroller may, where good cause is shown, extend the time for payment of tax by the person beyond the date on which it is due and payable under this section, or make such other arrangements as appropriate to ensure the payment of the tax due, and any such extension does not alter the due date for purposes of section 27.

(4) A person dissatisfied with a decision of the Comptroller under subsection (3) may challenge the decision in accordance with Part 10.

Allocation of payments

44. Where, in addition to any amount of tax which is due and payable by a person under this Act, an amount of interest or a penalty is payable, a payment made by the person in respect of such tax, interest, or penalty which is less than the total amount due is deemed to be made—

- (a) first in respect of such penalty;

(4) If the Comptroller has not made an objection decision under section 38(6), and 90 days have passed since the objection was lodged, an appeal may be made under subsection (2) at any time, as if the Comptroller had made a decision to disallow the objection.

(5) In an appeal to the Appeals Tribunal against an objection decision, the person is limited to the grounds set out in the person's objection, unless the Appeals Tribunal grants the person leave to add new grounds.

(6) In deciding an appeal, the Appeals Tribunal may make an order—

- (a) affirming, reducing, increasing, or varying the assessment under appeal; or
- (b) remitting the assessment for reconsideration by the Comptroller in accordance with the directions of the Appeals Tribunal.

(2) An appeal under subsection (1) may be made only on a question of law, including a question of mixed fact and law, and the notice of the appeal shall state the question of law that will be raised on the appeal.

- (b) to the extent that such payment exceeds the amount of such penalty, then in respect of such interest; and
- (c) to the extent that such payment exceeds the sum of such penalty and interest, then in respect of such tax.

Recovery of tax as debt due

45. (1) An amount of tax due and payable under this Act shall be recoverable by the Comptroller as a debt due to the State from the person liable, in the manner provided in this section.

(2) Except where a person has lodged an appeal or where his case is engaging the attention of the Court, where a person fails to pay tax when it is due and payable, referred to as the “defaulter”, the Comptroller may file, with the clerk or registrar of a court of competent jurisdiction, a statement certified by the Comptroller setting forth the amount of the tax due and payable by that person, and that statement shall have the effect of a civil judgment lawfully given in that court in favour of the Comptroller for a debt in the amount specified in the statement, and the Court shall issue a writ of execution against the defaulter.

(3) A writ of execution under subsection (2) shall not be issued until 10 days after service by the Court on the defaulter of a notice informing the defaulter that a writ of execution will be issued by the Court in respect of tax owed by the defaulter, and unpaid, unless before the expiration of that period of 10 days the defaulter produces proof of payment satisfactory to the Court.

(4) The Comptroller may, without prejudice to re-instituting proceedings under subsection (2), by notice in writing addressed to the clerk or registrar of the Court, withdraw the statement referred to in subsection (2) and such statement shall cease to have any effect.

Recovery of monies from persons leaving Anguilla

46. (1) Where the Comptroller has reasonable grounds to believe that a person may leave Anguilla without paying all tax due under this Act, he may, subject to subsection (2), issue a certificate to the Chief Immigration Officer containing particulars of the tax due and request that the Chief Immigration Officer take the necessary steps to prevent the person from leaving Anguilla until the person makes—

- (a) payment in full; or
- (b) an arrangement satisfactory to the Comptroller for the payment of the tax.

(2) The Comptroller may not proceed under subsection (1) unless he has obtained an Order of the Court in respect of the tax due.

(3) A copy of the certificate issued under subsection (1) shall be served by the Comptroller on the person named in the certificate if it is practicable to do so.

(4) If a certificate is issued under subsection (1), proof of payment to the Comptroller of the tax specified in the certificate or the production of the certificate signed by the Comptroller stating that the tax has been paid or satisfactory arrangements for payment have been made shall be sufficient authority for an immigration officer to allow the person to leave Anguilla.

Security

47. (1) Where it is reasonable to do so for the protection of the revenue or as provided for in this Act, the Comptroller, by notice in writing, may require a person to give security for the payment of tax that is or may become payable by the person under this Act.

(2) Security required under subsection (1), shall be for such amount, in such form, and furnished within such period as the Comptroller may specify in the notice.

(4) A person dissatisfied with a decision of the Comptroller under subsection (1) may challenge the decision in accordance with Part 10.

- (a) goods;
- (b) capital goods;
- (c) immovable property;

in the possession of a taxable person.

(2) Goods or capital goods seized under subsection (1) shall be stored in a place approved by the Comptroller for the storage of such goods.

(3) Where goods, capital goods or immovable property are seized under subsection (1), the Comptroller is required to serve on the owner of the goods or the person who had custody or control of the goods, capital goods or property immediately before seizure, a notice in writing as soon as practicable after the seizure—

- (a) identifying the goods, capital goods or immovable property;
- (b) stating that the goods, capital goods or immovable property have been seized under this section and the reason for seizure; and
- (c) setting out the terms of subsections (6), (7), and (8).

(4) The Comptroller is not required to serve notice under subsection (3) if, after making reasonable enquiries, the Comptroller does not have sufficient information to identify the person on whom the notice should be served.

(5) Where subsection (4) applies, the Comptroller may serve a notice under subsection (3) on a person claiming the goods, provided the person has given the Comptroller sufficient information to enable such a notice to be served.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Comptroller may authorise the delivery of goods or capital goods seized under subsection (1)(a) or (b) to the person on whom a notice under subsection (3) has been served, where that person pays or gives security, in accordance with section 47, for the payment of tax due and payable or that will become due and payable in respect of the supply or import of the goods.

(7) The Comptroller is permitted to detain the goods and capital goods seized under subsection (1)—

(a) in the case of perishable goods, only for such period as the Comptroller considers reasonable having regard to the condition of the goods; or

(b) in any other case, until the later of 20 days after the seizure of the goods, or

(8) Where the detention period in subsection (7) has expired, the Comptroller may sell the goods in the manner specified under section 50(1) and (5) and apply the proceeds of sale as set out in section 50(6).

(9) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the Comptroller may proceed under section 45 with respect to any balance owed if the proceeds of sale are not sufficient to meet the costs thereof and the tax due.

Distress proceedings

50. (1) Where goods have been detained under section 49, and the Comptroller wishes to sell such goods to recover tax due, the Comptroller may apply to the Court for an order to proceed with distress proceedings in accordance with this section.

(2) The Comptroller may recover unpaid tax by distress proceedings against the goods of the person liable to pay the tax, referred to as the “person liable”, by issuing an order in writing, specifying the person liable, the location of the property, and the tax liability to which the proceedings relate.

(3) For the purposes of executing distress under subsection (1), the Comptroller may—

(a) at any time enter any house or premises described in the order of the Court authorising the distress proceedings; and

(b) require a police officer to be present while the distress is being executed.

(4) Property upon which a distress is levied under this section, other than perishable goods, must be kept for 10 days either at the premises where the distress was levied or at such other place as the Comptroller may consider appropriate, at the cost of the person liable.

(5) Where the person liable does not pay the tax due, together with the costs of the distress—

(a) in the case of perishable goods, within such period as the Comptroller considers reasonable having regard to the condition of the goods; or the property distrained upon may be sold by public auction, or in such other manner as provided in the regulations.

(b) in any other case, within 10 days after the distress is levied;

(6) The proceeds of a disposal under subsection (5) shall be applied by the auctioneer or seller first towards the cost of taking, keeping, and selling the property distrained upon, then by the Comptroller towards the tax due and payable, and the remainder of the proceeds, if any, shall be restored to the person liable.

(7) Nothing in this section precludes the Comptroller from proceeding under section 45 with respect to any balance owed if the proceeds of the distress are not sufficient to meet the costs thereof and the tax due.

(8) All costs incurred by the Comptroller in respect of a distress may be recovered by the Comptroller from the person liable as tax due under this Act.

Recovery of tax from recipient of supply

51. (1) Where, in respect of a taxable supply by a taxable person, the taxable person has, in consequence of a fraudulent action or misrepresentation by the recipient of the supply, incorrectly treated the supply as an exempt or zero-rated supply, the Comptroller may raise an assessment upon the recipient for the amount of unpaid tax in respect of the supply together with any interest or penalty that has become payable under sections 27 and 45.

(2) The Comptroller is required to serve notice of an assessment under subsection (1) on the recipient specifying—

(a) the tax payable;

(b) the date the tax is due and payable; and

(c) the time, place, and manner of objecting to the assessment.

(3) An assessment raised under subsection (1) is treated as an assessment for all purposes of this Act.

(4) Subsection (1) does not preclude the Comptroller from recovering the tax, interest, or penalty from the taxable person making the supply.

(5) For purposes of subsection (4)—

(a) any amount recovered from the recipient is to be credited against the liability of the taxable person; and

- (b) any amount recovered from the taxable person is to be credited against the liability of the recipient.

(6) Where an amount of tax, interest, or penalty referred to in subsection (1) is paid by the taxable person, the taxable person may recover the amount paid from the recipient.

to pay the money to the Comptroller on the date set out in the notice, up to the amount of the tax due.

(2) The date specified in the notice under subsection (1) shall not be a date before the money becomes due to the person liable to pay tax, or held on the person’s behalf.

(3) A copy of a notice issued under subsection (1) shall be served on the person liable.

(4) A person making a payment pursuant to a notice under subsection (1) is deemed to have acted under the authority of the person liable and of all other persons concerned and is indemnified in respect of the payment.

(5) The provisions of this Act relating to the payment, collection and recovery of tax apply to any amount due under this section as if the amount were tax due under this Act.
