(b) a designated tax Act provides—

(i) for a tax to be collected from a person and paid by the collector to the Comptroller, and

(4) The Comptroller may exercise a power or perform a duty even if it has been delegated to another person.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), in interpreting a provision of a tax Act, if any material that does not form part of the Act is capable of assisting in ascertaining the meaning of the provision, consideration may be given to that material—

- (a) to confirm that the meaning of the provision is the ordinary meaning conveyed by the text of the provision, taking into account its context in the Act and the purpose or object underlying the Act; or
- (b) to determine the meaning of the provision when—

(5) Information concerning a taxpayer may be disclosed to another person with the taxpayer's written consent.

(6) The obligation as to secrecy imposed by this section continues to apply in respect of any person, notwithstanding cessation of the person's employment or appointment.

(7) The Comptroller may publish a list of the names of taxpayers—

- (a) who are in default under section 40;

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Taxpayer Identification Numbers

11. (1) The Comptroller must assign a unique Taxpayer Identification Number ("TIN") to every taxpayer.

(2) The TIN is to be used for all taxes to which this Act applies.

(3) The Comptroller may assign a TIN to a person who is not a taxpayer, but who requires a TIN for tax administration purposes.

(4) To the extent provided by the regulations, a person is required to include the person's TIN on documents relating to a tax to which this Act applies.

(5) Regulations may require a person to furnish the person's TIN to an information provider, namely someone who is required by regulations to furnish tax information to the Comptroller with respect to the person furnishing the TIN.

(6) The Comptroller must include the TIN on all correspondence sent to a taxpayer concerning the taxpayer's tax liability, and the taxpayer must include the number on returns and correspondence with the Comptroller.

(3) A public ruling is not binding on taxpayers.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Advance rulings

14. (1) A taxpayer may make a request to the Comptroller for an advance ruling regarding the application of tax legislation to a specific transaction proposed by the taxpayer.

(2) The Comptroller may issue to a taxpayer an advance ruling setting out the Department's position regarding the application of tax legislation to the specific transaction proposed by the taxpayer.

(3) If the taxpayer has made a full and true disclosure of the nature of all aspects of the transaction relevant to the ruling and the transaction proceeds in all material respects as described in the taxpayer's application for the ruling, the advance ruling is binding on the Department and on the taxpayer with respect to the application to the transaction of the law as it stands at the time of the ruling.

(4) If the Comptroller proposes to issue a ruling where the tax treatment differs from that proposed by the taxpayer in its application, the Comptroller must notify the taxpayer and give the taxpayer an opportunity to withdraw the ruling request.

(8) The Comptroller shall publish advance rulings, deleting or redacting the taxpayer's name and other information specific to the taxpayer that is not needed by others to understand the ruling.

(9) The Comptroller may adopt procedures for the issuance of advance rulings and specify reasonable fees to be charged.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Defect does not affect validity

17. A notice of assessment or other notice or document issued under this Act is not to be considered invalid or ineffective by reason of a failure to comply with the requirements prescribed by law if the taxpayer had effective knowledge of the fact of the notice and of its content.

(2) Where the Comptroller is of the opinion that records or books of account are not being kept in accordance with subsection (1), or where no records or books of account are being kept, by any person carrying on business then, in addition to prosecution for an offence, the Comptroller may direct such person to keep such records or books of account as the Comptroller may specify.

(3) The records or books of account required by this section must be kept at the place of business of the person carrying on business unless the Comptroller approves of them being kept at some other place.

(4) In addition to the records and accounts described in subsection (1), a taxpayer must also retain source documents and underlying documentation utilized in the creation of the records and accounts.

(5) A person required to prepare or retain records of a transaction under relevant tax legislation must retain the documents—

- (a) for a period of 7 years from the date on which the transaction took place; or
- (b) until expiration of the time limit for assessment of tax for any tax period to which the records are relevant.

(6) If a person has prepared records required under this section in a language other than English, that person is required at that person's expense, upon request, to provide an English translation acceptable to the Comptroller.

(7) Financial statements, invoices, books of original entry, and all written communications between the Department and the taxpayer must be in English.

(8) For the purposes of this section, source documents and underlying documentation include sales and purchase invoices, costing documents, bookings, diaries, purchase orders, delivery notes, bank statements, contracts, and other documents which relate to an element of a transaction.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Obligations of financial institutions

20. A bank or financial institution is required to keep account of all transactions with a client, including the client's identity.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Tax returns

21. (1) Every taxpayer must, if required by an Act to which this Act applies, furnish to the Comptroller a tax return in accordance with subsection (2), within the time and at the place specified by that Act, or as demanded by the Comptroller.

(2) The Comptroller shall specify—

(b) the information to be furnished on the return and attachments, if any, required to be filed with the return; and

(c) the manner of filing.

(3) A taxpayer may file an amended return for a tax period no later than 6 years after the end of the tax period.

(4) A taxpayer, or the taxpayer's duly authorised agent, must sign the return, attesting to its accuracy and completeness.

(5) If a return or part of a return was prepared for reward by some other person, other than a full-time employee of the taxpayer, that other person must also sign the return.

(6) The Comptroller may, by notice in writing, require a person to file, whether on that person's own behalf or as agent or trustee for another person, fuller or additional returns for a tax period as the Comptroller requires, even if the taxpayer has not submitted a return for the period.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Notice to require filing

22. (1) Where it appears to the Comptroller that any person is or may be liable to furnish a return and has not done so, the Comptroller may, by notice in writing, require such person to furnish a return within such time as may be specified in the notice, not being less than 7 days from the date of service of such notice.

(2) Nothing in this section extends the time limits provided by the relevant tax legislation for the furnishing of a return.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Return deemed to be furnished by due authority

23. Every return, statement, or form purporting to be furnished under this Act by or on behalf of any person is deemed to have been furnished by that person or with the person's authority, as the case may be, unless the contrary is proved, and any person signing such return, statement, or form is deemed to be cognisant of all matters contained therein.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Extension of time to file returns

24. (1) The Comptroller may extend the time limit prescribed for filing a tax return if the taxpayer or other person required to file applies for the extension by the due date.

(2) The granting of an extension of time under subsection (1) does not affect the due date for payment of tax, unless an extension of time for payment is also expressly granted.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Assessments

25. (1) An assessment of a taxpayer's liability to pay tax is to be made in the manner prescribed by this Act and the relevant Act to which this Act applies.

(2) An assessment by the Comptroller may be based upon the information supplied by the taxpayer in a tax return and upon any other relevant information available to the Comptroller.

(3) If a taxpayer fails to file a tax return as required, the Comptroller may make an assessment of the amount of tax payable, based upon his best judgement and information reasonably available to the Comptroller.

(4) If the Comptroller bases an assessment in whole or in part on information other than that supplied by a taxpayer in a tax return, the Comptroller must provide an indication of the nature of the information on which the assessment is based.

(5) If the relevant tax legislation requires the taxpayer to include in a tax return a calculation of the amount of tax payable, the filing of the return has the same effect as if the Comptroller had made an assessment in that amount, but does not prevent the Comptroller from issuing a new or revised assessment.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

New or revised assessment

26. (1) The Comptroller may make a new assessment, or may revise an assessment previously made, if the Comptroller is of the opinion that the original assessment was incorrect.

(2) If the taxpayer has failed to comply with record keeping requirements or has submitted inaccurate information, the Comptroller may use his best judgement and information reasonably available in making a new or revised assessment.

(3) If a taxpayer files an amended return under section 21(3), the Comptroller must revise the original assessment if satisfied that the original assessment was based on incorrect information.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Notice of assessment

27. When an assessment is made under section 25(2) or (3) or under section 26, the Comptroller must issue a notice of assessment, to be served on the person assessed, which must be signed by an authorised officer, and contain the following information—

- (a) the name of the taxpayer;
- (b) the taxpayer identification number, if one has been issued to the taxpayer;
- (c) the date of issue of the notice;
- (d) the matter to which the notice relates;

- (j) other information, at the discretion of the Comptroller.

(2) The original or a certified copy of a notice of assessment is receivable in proceedings as conclusive evidence that the assessment has been duly made and, except in proceedings in relation to the assessment under Part 8, that the amount and all particulars of the assessment are correct.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Anti-avoidance

28. (1) In making an assessment, the Comptroller may disregard a transaction or series of transactions that are artificial or fictitious, or treat according to its economic substance a transaction or series of transactions that have been mischaracterised.

(2) In making an assessment, the Comptroller may adjust transactions between related persons to the terms that would have obtained if the transaction had taken place between unrelated persons at arm's length.

(3) If the Comptroller is satisfied that a scheme has been entered into or carried out and—

- (a) a person has obtained a tax benefit in connection with the scheme in a manner that constitutes a misuse or abuse of the provisions of a tax Act; and
- (b) having regard to the substance of the scheme, it would be concluded that the person, or one of the persons, who entered into or carried out the scheme, did so for the sole or dominant purpose of enabling the person to obtain the tax benefit;

the Comptroller may, in making an assessment, determine the liability of the person who has obtained the tax benefit as if the scheme had not been entered into or carried out, or in such manner as the Comptroller considers appropriate for the prevention or reduction of the tax benefit.

(4) For the purposes of determining a person's liability under subsection (3), and for the purposes of ensuring the prevention or reduction of the tax benefit, the Comptroller may do any of the following—

- (a) treat a particular event that actually happened as not having happened;
- (b) treat a particular event that did not actually happen as having happened and, if appropriate, treat the event as—
 - (i) having happened at a particular time, and

- (ii) having involved particular action by a particular person;
- (c) treat a particular event that actually happened as—
 - (i) having happened at a time different from the time it actually happened, or
 - (ii) having involved particular action by a particular person (whether or not the event actually involved any action by that person).
- (5) In this section—

“scheme” includes a course of action and an agreement, arrangement, promise, plan, proposal, or undertaking, whether expressed or implied and whether or not legally enforceable; and

“tax benefit” includes a reduction or deferral in the liability of a person to pay tax, or an increase in the entitlement of a person to a refund.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

Liability of taxpayer and due date

29. (1) Tax is due and payable at the time provided by the relevant tax legislation.

- (2) Subject to subsection (1), the amount of tax—
 - (a) stated in a notice of assessment to be due; or
 - (b) deemed to be assessed under section 25(5);

is due and payable on the date stated in the notice or, in the case described in paragraph (b), on the due date for the return in question.

(3) Tax must be paid in the manner and place prescribed by the Comptroller.

(4) If the Comptroller has reasonable grounds to believe that a taxpayer may leave Anguilla before the due date for payment of an amount that would be due under an Act to which this Act applies, that tax is due on the date specified by the Comptroller by notice in writing to the person.

(Act 8/2018, s. 6)

PART 5

PAYMENT OF TAX AND OTHER REVENUE

Application of tax payment

30. (1) A payment in relation to a tax under an Act to which this Act applies shall be applied by the Comptroller in the following order—

- (a) to interest owing;
- (b) to penalties owing;

- (c) to arrears of tax;
- (d) to tax payable.

(2) If a payment made by a person is intended to be applied to tax under an Act to which this Act applies but the person does not specify which tax, the Comptroller may apply the payment to the tax that the Comptroller considers appropriate.

(Act 8/2018, s. 2)

Interest on arrears of tax

31. (1) Interest is payable on arrears of tax under an Act to which this Act applies at the rate established under section 21 of the Financial Administration and Audit Act from the date the amount is due until the date the amount is received by the Comptroller.

(2) Notwithstanding the interest rate specified in section 6 of the Judgments Act, a judgment debt for tax under an Act to which this Act applies shall carry interest at the rate referred to in subsection (1).

(3) Procedures for the payment, collection and dispute of a tax apply equally to interest relating to a tax.

(4) Liability for interest under this Act is calculated separately and is in addition to penalties provided by law.

(5) If a person has paid interest under this Act and an amount to which the interest relates is found not to have been payable, the interest paid on that amount must be refunded to the person.

(Act 8/2018, s.2 and s. 7)

Interest on refundable amounts

32. (1) If the Comptroller is required to refund an amount under section 38(2), interest must be paid to the taxpayer from the later of—

- (a) the due date; or
- (b) the date the tax was paid;

until the date on which the refundable amount is paid.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), no interest is payable in respect of a refund that is based on a claim for refund and is paid to the taxpayer within 60 days of the filing of the claim for refund.

(3) A refundable amount that is applied against another tax liability under section 38(1) is considered to have been paid to the taxpayer on the due date of the liability against which the refundable amount was applied.

(Act 8/2018, s. 8)

Waiver of interest or penalty

33. (1) In this section, “waiver committee” means the waiver committee established by the regulations.

(2) Notwithstanding section 16 of the Financial Administration and Audit Act, but subject to subsection (3), the Comptroller may, with the approval of the waiver committee, waive the imposition of, or liability for, any interest or penalty or any part of interest or a penalty.

(3) A waiver by the Comptroller in relation to the interest or a penalty or any part of interest or a penalty under any one tax Act shall not, in relation to any person in any calendar year, exceed $1,000 or such other amount as may be prescribed for the purpose of this subsection.

(4) The waiver committee may, to the extent that it is satisfied that the circumstances that gave rise to interest or a penalty were beyond the control of the person owing the interest or penalty under an Act to which this Act applies, or were the responsibility of the Department, approve the waiver by the Comptroller of the imposition of, or liability for, any interest or penalty or any part of interest or a penalty.

(Act 8/2018, s. 2)

(5) Section 19 of the Financial Administration and Audit Act applies to a waiver of the imposition of, or liability for, any interest or penalty or any part of interest or a penalty imposed or payable under a designated tax Act as it applies to remissions under section 16 of that Act.

Agreements and security for payment of arrears of tax or other revenue

34. (1) Subsection (2) does not apply to payment of a fee for an application for or issue or grant of a licence, registration, permit or other service of the Crown.

(2) The Comptroller may, with the written authorisation of the Minister, enter into agreements in writing in relation to the orderly payment by a person of arrears of tax and any interest or penalty thereon or of other amount payable to or to be collected by the Comptroller and, if the Comptroller considers it advisable in a particular case, require security for payment of the amount, or part of the amounts.

(3) The authorisation of the Minister under subsection (2) may be specific or may apply to payments generally or to a class of payments.

(4) Subject to the regulations, the Comptroller may accept security for an amount referred to in subsection (2) on any kind of property and in any form approved by the Comptroller from the person liable for the amount or from any other person.

(5) If a person who has furnished security under subsection (4) requests in writing that the Comptroller surrender the security, the Comptroller shall surrender the security to the extent that, in the Comptroller's opinion, the value of the security exceeds the amount payable in relation to which the security was given by that person at the time the request was made.

Liability and obligations of responsible representatives

35. (1) For the purposes of this Act, subject to subsection (2), "responsible representative," in respect of a person, means—

- (a) if the person is an individual under a legal disability, the guardian or manager who receives or is entitled to receive income on behalf of, or for the benefit of, the individual;

- (h) if the person is a non-resident, a person controlling the person's affairs in Anguilla, including a manager of a business of that person in Anguilla.

(2) Where, in relation to a person, there is more than one representative described in subsection (1), then the person must designate which of these serves as the representative, but in the absence of a designation all serve as representatives pending the designation.

(3) The designation under subsection (2) must be of a person residing in Anguilla, unless there are none in relation to the person.

(4) Every company carrying on business in Anguilla must be represented for the purposes of this Act by a principal officer residing in Anguilla and if there are none, by an authorised agent residing in Anguilla, and must notify the Comptroller of its appointed representative within one month after it commences carrying on business in Anguilla, or one month after the designated representative ceases to qualify as such.

(5) If a representative of a person designated under subsection (1) is unable to perform duties, the Comptroller may, by notice in writing, declare another individual to be a representative of the person for the purposes of this Act.

(6) Every responsible representative of a person is responsible for performing duties or obligations imposed by this Act on the person, including maintaining records, filing returns and other documents, and the payment of tax.

(7) Subject to subsection (9), tax that, by virtue of subsection (6) is payable by a responsible representative of a person, is recoverable from the responsible representative only to the extent of any assets of the person that are in the possession or under the control of the responsible representative.

(8) A responsible representative of a person who pays tax owing by the person is entitled to recover the amount so paid from the person or to retain the amount so paid out of any monies of the person that are in the responsible representative's possession or under the responsible representative's control.

(9) A responsible representative is personally liable for the payment of tax due by the representative in a representative capacity if, while the amount remains unpaid, the responsible representative—

- (a) alienates, charges, or disposes of moneys received or accrued in respect of which the tax is payable; or
- (b) disposes of or parts with monies or funds belonging to the taxpayer that are in the possession of the responsible representative or which come to the responsible representative after the tax is payable, if the tax could legally have been paid from or out of the monies or funds.

(10) Nothing in this section relieves a person from performing duties imposed on the person by this Act that the responsible representative of the person has failed to perform.

(11) If there are two or more responsible representatives of a person, the duties or obligations referred to in this section apply jointly and severally to the responsible representatives but may be discharged by any of them.

(12) If—

- (a) a partnership or other unincorporated association or body is dissolved or otherwise ceases to exist because of the retirement or withdrawal of one or more, but not all, of its partners or members, or because of the admission of a new partner or member;
- (b) apart from the provisions of this Act a new partnership, association, or body, consisting of the remaining members, or of the existing or remaining members and one or more new members, thereby comes into existence; and
- (c) the new partnership, association, or body continues to carry on the activity that was carried on by the dissolved partnership, association, or body;

the dissolved partnership, association, or body and the new partnership, association, or body are, for the purposes of this Act, deemed to be one and the same.

(13) If, after the death of a taxable person or the sequestration of a taxable person's estate, a taxable activity previously carried on by the taxable person is carried on by or on behalf of the executor or trustee of the person's estate or anything is done in connection with the termination of the taxable activity, the estate of the taxable person, as represented by the executor or trustee, is deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the taxable person in respect of the taxable activity.

(14) If a mortgagee is in possession of land or other property previously mortgaged by a mortgagor who is a taxable person, and the mortgagee carries on a taxable activity in relation to the land or other property, the mortgagee is deemed, from the date the mortgagee took possession of that land or property until such time as the mortgagee ceases to be in possession of the land or property, to be the taxable person carrying on the taxable activity.

(15) For the purposes of the tax legislation, if a person is a trustee in more than one capacity, the person is treated as a separate person in relation to each of those capacities.

(Act 8/2018, s. 9)

Officers of unincorporated bodies

36. (1) A liability or obligation imposed by tax legislation on an unincorporated body is imposed on the body and on any person who is an officer of the body at the time the liability or obligation is imposed, and the body and each such officer are jointly and severally liable for that liability or obligation.

(2) For the purposes of the tax legislation, the existence of an unincorporated body and any taxable activity carried on by the unincorporated body are deemed not to be affected by any change in its members or officers.

(3) A document which is required to be served on an unincorporated body under the tax legislation may be served on an officer of the body.

(4) An offence under the tax legislation committed by an unincorporated body is also taken to have been committed by the officers of the unincorporated body.

(3) A person liable for tax of a company under this section may invoke any rights as against the Department that would have been available to the company.

(Act 8/2018, s. 9)

Refundable amounts

38. (1) If the amount of tax which has been paid by a taxpayer exceeds the amount of tax assessed or found to be payable, the Comptroller must—

- (a) apply the refundable amount against the taxpayer's assessed liability to pay tax, interest, late fees, or penalties to which this Act applies; and
- (b) unless the taxpayer objects, apply an amount remaining against the taxpayer's liability to make advance payments of tax that will become due within the succeeding 6 months.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), refundable amounts must be paid to the taxpayer.

(3) A refund or credit may be made under this section only if the taxpayer applies for it within 6 years of the date of payment or, if made on the Comptroller's initiative, within this time period.

(Act 8/2018, s. 9)

Extension of time for payment

39. (1) The taxpayer may apply, on a form prescribed by the Comptroller, for an extension of the time for payment of tax beyond the date on which it is required to be paid under section 29.

(2) The Comptroller may, with good cause—

- (a) extend the time for payment as requested under subsection (1);
- (b) grant an extension period different from the period requested by the taxpayer; and
- (c) make other arrangements to ensure payment of the tax, including arrangements requiring the person to pay the amount due in instalments.

(3) If the Comptroller does not notify the person who made an application under subsection (1) of the decision in writing within 30 days, the application is granted.

(4) If a taxpayer has been granted an extension under subsection (1), interest is payable under section 31 notwithstanding the extension of time.

(5) If an extension is granted by permitting the taxpayer to pay by instalments and the taxpayer defaults in paying any of the instalments, the whole balance of the tax outstanding becomes payable immediately.

(Act 8/2018, s. 9)

(3) The taxpayer is in default 21 days after service of the notice, in respect of any amounts remaining unpaid as of that date.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply if the taxpayer has—

- (a) entered into a payment arrangement with the Comptroller pursuant to the applicable tax legislation; or

- (b) received an extension pursuant to section 39; and has remained in compliance with the terms of the arrangement or extension.

- (a) to pay the amount that is payable by the person at or before that time and that remains unpaid, to the extent that the responsible representative is at that time in possession or control, in the capacity of responsible representative, of property that belongs or belonged to, or that is or was held for the benefit of, the person liable to pay the amount; and
- (b) to perform any obligation or duty imposed on that person at or before that time and that remains outstanding, to the extent that the obligation or duty can reasonably be considered to relate to the responsibilities of the responsible representative acting in that capacity.

(4) In any proceedings for the recovery of tax it is not competent for the defendant to enter a defence that—

(1) If a taxpayer fails to pay a tax by the due date, a lien in favour of the Comptroller is created in the amount owing (together with interest, penalty, and costs of collection that may accrue) on all property belonging to the taxpayer, and has priority as against all other rights, except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) The lien described in subsection (1) arises at midnight at the end of the due date and continues until the liability is satisfied or becomes unenforceable by reason of lapse of time.

(3) The lien imposed by this section is not valid against the interest of a person who is a purchaser from the taxpayer or a holder of a security interest granted by the taxpayer, if the interest arises—whichever first occurs.

(4) The Comptroller may file notice of a lien at any time after a taxpayer is determined to be in default pursuant to section 40.

(5) Regulations may prescribe procedures for filing notice of a lien and may prescribe categories of interest against which the lien is not valid even though notice of the lien has been filed.

(6) The Comptroller must send notice of the intention to register the lien to the taxpayer at least 15 days prior to registering a lien with the Registrar of the High Court and the Registrar of Lands.

(7) Subsection (6) does not apply if the Comptroller believes that the ability to collect tax is in jeopardy.

(8) The Comptroller may file an action in the High Court to enforce the lien imposed by this section.

(9) An affected person may apply to the Comptroller for a release of the lien on the person's property and a decision by the Comptroller not to release a lien may be appealed to the High Court.

(2) A certificate issued under subsection (1) may be filed in the Court as if it were a judgment of the Court and, when it is so filed, a copy shall be served without delay on the person owing the amount.

(3) When a certificate issued under subsection (1) is filed in the Court—

68. (1) Where a notice of objection has been served on the Comptroller under section 60(1), the undisputed tax liability remains due and payable, unless the Comptroller grants an extension of time under section 39, while the amount in dispute is not due and payable until a final decision by the Comptroller or the Court.

(2) The amount of the penalty in respect of a given tax return under subsection (1) is limited to $10,000.

(Act 8/2018, s. 14)

Late payment

72. (1) A person who fails to pay all or part of a tax (including withholding tax) due for a tax period within 14 days of the due date, or by the due date specified in the notice of assessment, if later, is liable to a penalty equal to 20 percent of the amount of tax due but not paid.
