GOODS AND SERVICES TAX ACT, 2021 (ACT NO. 18/2021)

GOODS AND SERVICES TAX REGULATIONS, 2022

Regulations made by the Minister under section 100 of the Goods and Services Tax Act, 2021.

GENERAL

Interpretation

1. (1) In these Regulations—

“Act” means Goods and Services Tax Act, 2021.

Approved religious organisations

2. An approved religious organisation, within the meaning of section 1 and Schedule 2 of the Act, means an organisation which is a church or other religious organisation or an institute of religious worship which is—

- (a) registered with the Ministry responsible for ecclesiastical affairs to perform specified ceremonies; or
- (b) incorporated as such by an Act of Anguilla.

Registration

3. (1) A person who makes, or intends to make taxable supplies, but is not required to apply for registration under section 10(1) of the Act, may apply to the Comptroller for voluntary registration.

(2) Where an application for voluntary registration is made to the Comptroller the Comptroller may grant such application where the applicant satisfies the following conditions—

- (a) that the applicant’s business and business location are identifiable and the address and other information of the applicant or his representative are provided to the Comptroller’s satisfaction;
- (b) that the applicant demonstrates to the Comptroller’s satisfaction that the record keeping requirements of sections 60 and 61 of the Act are in place;
- (c) that the applicant provides to the Comptroller’s satisfaction evidence that the applicant makes or intends to make taxable supplies and such evidence may include—
 - (i) bank loans and revenue projections,
 - (ii) contracts or other details of arrangements to make taxable supplies,
 - (iii) feasibility studies,
 - (iv) purchase of capital equipment, and

- (v) any other information deemed acceptable by the Comptroller;
 - (d) that the applicant demonstrates to the Comptroller's satisfaction his compliance with other tax laws administered by the Inland Revenue Department and the Customs Department.
- (3) A promoter of public entertainment and a licensee or proprietor of places of public entertainment are required to apply for registration at least 7 days before—
- (a) the commencement of the public entertainment; or
 - (b) the date of the first sale of tickets for such an event;
- whichever of the two occurrences is the earlier.

Value of supply for goods or services referred to in section 15 of the Act

4. (1) Where a taxable person applies goods or services acquired for use in a taxable activity to a different use, including the provision of goods or services to an employee for personal use, such application of goods or services shall be treated in accordance with section 15 of the Act, as a supply by the taxable person in the course of or the furtherance of that taxable activity.

(2) Where a taxable person makes a supply of goods or services referred to in subsection (1) the value of the supply is the lesser of the following two—

- (a) the consideration paid or payable by the taxable person for those goods or services; or
- (b) the fair market value of the supply.

(3) Where a taxable person referred to in subsection (1) applies less than the entire goods or services to a different use, the value of the supply shall be the value of the portion of the goods or services applied to a different use.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (3), the value of the supply of goods or services that are applied to a different use is—

- (a) the percentage that the cost of the goods or services applied to the different use bears to the original cost of the entire goods or services to which subsection (3) refers; or
- (b) if the registered person has documentary proof of the portion of the current fair market value of the goods or services applied to the different use, and it is less than their value as calculated under paragraph (a), that lesser value.

(5) Where, in a particular case, the Comptroller considers that the value of the supply of the goods or services applied to the different use, as calculated under subsection (4), is unreasonably high, he may assess a lower value.

(6) If the Comptroller assesses a lower value under subsection (5), he shall record in writing his written reasons for doing so.

(7) If a registered person who is a telephone, cable, or other service provider, or a reseller—

- (a) sells to an unregistered person who is a reseller, a prepaid card that can be used to obtain the service provided by the service provider; and
- (b) that sale is at a discount from the stated value (exclusive of tax) on the card, and

(c) the tax on the supply is accounted for separately from that stated value;
the value of the supply is the stated value on the prepaid card.

Input tax credit allocation and disallowance rules

5. Notwithstanding section 25(3) of the Act, where a taxable person makes both taxable and exempt supplies during a tax period, the Comptroller may determine the amount of input tax allowed for the tax period for the purposes of sections 24 and 25 of the Act, on such other basis that in the opinion of the Comptroller would provide a fair and reasonable result giving due regard to the circumstances in a particular case.

Carrying forward of excess credits and refund of tax

6. (1) Where the total amount of input tax creditable by a taxable person under section 24 of the Act for a tax period exceeds the person's output tax for that period the amount of the excess shall be treated in the manner provided in sections 24 and 35 of the Act.

(2) If any of the excess referred to in subsection (1) for a tax period remains after being carried forward and used as input tax creditable in 3 consecutive tax periods, the taxable person may file with the Comptroller a claim for refund for the amount remaining, containing the information specified in subsection (3).

(3) The information referred to in subsection (2) shall include the following—

- (a) the legal name of the registered person making the claim, and the registered person's trade name, if different from the legal name;
- (b) the GST registration number of the registered person making the claim;
- (c) the amount of the refund claimed,
- (d) the period or periods in relation to which the credit arose; and
- (e) the periods, if any, to which the credit was carried over and
- (f) the periods, if any, in relation to which portions of credit were claimed.

(4) Where at least 50% of the amount of the taxable supplies of a taxable person for the taxable period is taxed at a zero rate, and the person reports an excess described in subsection (1) for a taxable period, the person may file with the Comptroller a claim for refund for the excess credits attributable to the zero-rated supplies, containing the information specified in subsection (5).

(5) The information referred to in subsection (4) shall include the following—

- (a) the legal name of the registered person making the claim, and the registered person's trade name, if different from the legal name;
- (b) the GST registration number of the registered person making the claim;
- (c) the amount of the refund claimed,
- (d) the period or periods in relation to which the credit arose,
- (e) the periods, if any, in relation to which the credit was carried over; and

(f) the periods, if any, in relation to which portions of the credit were claimed.

Others Eligible for tax refund

7. (1) A person or organisation referred to in section 37(1) of the Act may apply to the Comptroller for a refund of tax paid or borne on a supply to or import by such persons or organisations.

(2) A claim for refund under subsection (1), shall be submitted in the form prescribed by the Comptroller, including the following information—

- (a) the name of the person making the claim;
- (b) except in the case of claims made under section 37(1)(d) of the Act, the taxpayer's identification number; and
- (c) the amount of the refund claimed, with a list of the eligible supplies and imports giving rise to the claim, along with the related tax invoices.

(3) Tax on supplies and imports is refundable under section 37(1) of the Act only if the supplies and imports are related to the basis for the refund claimed under section 37(1) in accordance with the following—

- (a) in the case of refunds permitted by section 37(1)(a) of the Act, the supplies and imports relating to the official purposes of an approved Not for Profit Organisation shall be eligible for refund;
- (b) in the case of refunds permitted by section 37(1)(b) of the Act, the supplies and imports relating to the official purposes of the diplomatic or consular mission, including—
 - (i) office supplies and equipment,
 - (ii) furniture and equipment for use on consular or diplomatic premises,
 - (iii) official receptions and meals hosted at hotels and restaurants with a cost exceeding $1,000,
 - (iv) vehicles and fuel for official use, and
 - (v) telephone, electricity, and other utility services supplied to the mission's business premises;shall be eligible for a refund;
- (c) in the case of refunds permitted by section 37(1)(c) of the Act, the supplies and imports specified in the claimant's agreement shall be eligible for a refund;
- (d) in the case of refunds permitted by section 37(1)(d) of the Act, the supplies of goods obtained while in Anguilla within 3 months preceding the claim by a departing non-resident, shall be eligible for a refund, provided—
 - (i) that such goods are exported by such non-resident in accompanied baggage and
 - (ii) the total tax on the exported supplies is greater than the amount specified in item 5 of Schedule 4 of the Act.

(5) Upon application in the form specified by the Comptroller, a person entitled to receive refunds under section 37(1)(a), (b), or (c) of the Act shall be issued a taxpayer's identification number for use in making GST refund claims.

(6) The Minister may, after consultation with the Comptroller, from time to time publish by notice in the Gazette names of persons entitled to such refunds.

Record Keeping

8. The following records shall be maintained in Anguilla in addition to those specified in section 60 and 61(1) of the Act—

- (a) records of any GST invoices for which the recipient of the supply requested a copy to be issued;
- (b) invoices other than tax invoices for acquisitions of goods or services by the person;
- (c) records relating to the supply of goods or services to officers, directors, and employees, whether or not the supplies were made for consideration;

SCHEDULE 2EXEMPT SUPPLIES

(Section 17 and Schedule 2 of the Act and Section 10)

Table 1A Supply of financial services (other than Domestic financial services provided for an explicit fee)

A supply of financial services as defined in section 1 of the Act is an exempt supply except –

- (a) where services defined under sub paragraph (f) fall outside the scope of item 2(b) of Schedule 2 of the Act; and
- (b) where the supply of financial services is in connection with a supply of—
 - i. domestic financial services for an explicit fee,
 - ii. accounting and record keeping services, including a financial clearing system that may be part of the settlement process, the posting of financial transactions to customers' accounts, the maintenance of customers' accounts, and the rendering of services ancillary to the services just described,
 - iii. legal, actuarial, notary, and tax agency services (including advisory services) when rendered to a supplier of financial services or to a customer of that supplier of financial services,
 - iv. safe custody for cash, documents, or other items,
 - v. data processing and payroll services,
 - vi. debt collection or factoring services,
 - vii. trustee, financial advisory, and estate planning services, and
 - viii. leases, licenses, and similar arrangements relating to property other than a financial instrument.

In this schedule—

A “domestic financial service” is defined as a financial service supplied in Anguilla;

An “explicit fee” is a charge that is itemized separate and apart from interest and any other charges.

Table 8Goods Imported for Personal Use and Not for Resale by Anguilla Nationals Returning Home for Permanent Residence

Goods falling in the following categories which have been imported by a national returning home for permanent residence are exempt from GST—

- (a) household and personal effects, (whether used or new) determined by the Comptroller of Customs as adequate to furnish the family residence of a returning national and which the Comptroller determines are not intended for sale or exchange. The household and personal effects must accompany the returning national or be imported by that returning national within three months before or after the arrival of the returning national or within such further period as the Comptroller of Customs may allow;
- (b) one motor vehicle per family of a returning national (whether the motor vehicle is used or new) that accompanies the returning national and arrives or is imported by the returning national within three months before or after the arrival of the returning national or within such further period as the Comptroller of Customs may allow and is not intended for sale or exchange within three years of importation;

- (c) implements, instruments and tools of profession, trade or occupation (not including plant, machinery and heavy equipment) of the returning national, determined as such by the Comptroller of Customs in consultation with the returning national.

For the purposes of this Table “A returning national” is a person who is—

- (a) either a national of Anguilla or the spouse of a national of Anguilla;
- (b) eighteen years or above; and
- (c) returning to Anguilla to settle after a minimum of ten years residence abroad, provided that—
- i. A returning national who, during the ten year period immediately preceding his return to Anguilla, has visited or stayed in Anguilla for a continuous period of more than 6 months on more than 2 occasions shall not qualify for the exemption,
 - ii. No person shall benefit from the exemption on more than one occasion,
 - iii. A returning national who is accorded the exemption, and during the three year period immediately following his return to Anguilla returns abroad and resides outside Anguilla for a continuous period exceeding three months, loses his privileges and is liable to pay all of the tax waived for him under this exemption.
